§ 998.19 Nomination.

Producers and handlers may nominate their successor representatives to those named in § 998.18 at meetings held in each area except that each area association representative shall be nominated by the association. The committee shall hold and shall give reasonable publicity to nomination meetings and may use the respective area associations to convene meetings of the producers. Only persons eligible to serve shall be eligible to vote. Each producer and each handler shall have but one vote, but a handler may vote in each production area in which he is a handler and if engaged in peanut production, may vote in his capacity as a producer. The person receiving the largest number of the votes cast for a position shall be the nominee. All nominations shall be certified by the committee to the Secretary no later than April 5 preceding the commencement of the term of office.

§ 998.20 Selection.

The Secretary shall select successor producer and handler members and alternate members of the committee in the numbers and with the qualifications specified in this agreement. Such selections may be made from the nominations certified by the committee or from other eligible producers and handlers.

§ 998.21 Failure to nominate.

In the event a nominee for any member or alternate member position is not certified pursuant to and within the time specified, the Secretary may select an eligible person to fill such position without regard to nomination.

§ 998.22 Qualify by acceptance.

Each person selected by the Secretary as a member or as an alternate member shall, prior to serving, qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance as soon as practicable after being notified of such selection.

§ 998.23 Alternate members.

An alternate for a member shall act in the place and stead of such member:

(a) During his absence, or

(b) In the event of his removal, resignation, disqualification, or death, until a successor for such member's unexpired term has been selected and has qualified.

§ 998.24 Vacancies.

Any vacancy occasioned by the removal, resignation, disqualification, or death of any member or alternate, or any need to select a successor through failure of any person selected as a member or alternate member to qualify, and which is not recognized by the committee certifying to the Secretary a new nominee within 40 calendar days, may be filled pursuant to § 998.21.

§ 998.25 Compensation and expenses.

The members of the committee, and the alternate members when acting as members, shall serve without compensation but shall be allowed their necessary expenses, actual or per diem as approved by the committee.

§ 998.26 Procedure.

All decisions of the committee reached at an assembled meeting shall be by majority vote of the members present except that a change of a quality regulation shall require approval of 75 percent of the members. Meetings, or portions of meetings, concerned with marketing policy or quality regulation shall be open to all members of the peanut industry. All votes in an assembled meeting shall be cast in person and a quorum must be present for a valid decision. A quorum shall consist of not less than 50 percent of the producer members and 50 percent of the handler members. The committee may vote by mail or telegram upon due notice to all members, but any proposition so voted upon first shall be explained accurately, fully, and identically by mail or telegram, to all such
